

PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

Thank you for agreeing to participate in our mock trial! We appreciate your willingness to help us with this important research project, which will help the courts and the legal system better understand the opportunities and challenges of online court procedures. In order to make sure that we can use this research, we need your agreement for the following issues. Please read carefully.

This agreement is made and entered into on June _____ 2020, between the Online Courtroom Project and (please print name here) _____ (hereinafter called "Participant".) Participant agrees to complete any written forms or questionnaires that they are asked to fill out thoughtfully, truthfully, and completely. Participant agrees to remain present throughout both research days of June 26th and 27th, from approximately 12:30pm to 5:30pm Eastern Standard Time. Adequate breaks will be given to ensure your comfort.

Participant consents to be recorded during the research and that their image may be shown during the research days and that any recording can be used by the Online Courtroom Project for research or educational purposes. Participant agrees that any such recording or written responses to questionnaires is the exclusive property of the Online Courtroom Project and releases all right, title, and interests of such recordings and written responses and agrees not to make any claim to ownership of any such recordings or written responses.

Thank you again for your assistance.
